

About this Ministry

Martin Luther High School is a vibrant educational ministry that impacts the lives of teenagers in countless ways.

Teens receive an exemplary academic education, as well as in-depth religious instruction.

This religious instruction causes a "ripple effect" which shapes students' thinking, behavior, character, morals and life-long choices.

It is more than just an education; it is an edification of the mind and heart.

A Leader in Excellence

Now in its 27th academic year, Martin Luther High School has developed a reputation for encouraging students to set high goals and utilize their talents.

Re-accredited in 2005 by the National Lutheran Secondary School Association, MLHS offers a complete college preparatory education.

95% of MLHS graduates advance to and succeed at a variety of post-secondary educational institutions.

For the past several years, MLHS ACT scores have consistently been well above state and national averages. This is a testimony to the quality educational guidance provided.

Preparing Teens for Life—and Beyond

Since 1986 MLHS has graduated 342 young men and women. They have successful careers in all walks of life. Doctors, lawyers, physical therapists, psychologists, pastors, teachers, film-makers, communication professionals, plumbers, electricians, carpenters and many other careers are represented among the MLHS Alumni.

These alumni go out into the world and touch countless other people with their intelligence, character and faith that was enhanced at MLHS.

Teenagers from southern MN and northern IA attend MLHS. They come from Amboy, Blue Earth, Ceylon, Estherville, Fairmont, Granada, Lewisville, Madelia, Northrop, Ormsby, St. James, Sherburn, Trimont, Truman, Vernon Center, Welcome and Winnebago. Updated 3/15/10

Worthy of Your Support

Owned and supported by nineteen Lutheran Churches, MLHS has a phenomenal support network in southern Minnesota and outlying support that spans from coast to coast.

In order to continue to provide the quality education, we rely on three sources for our working funds:

1. Tuition
2. Donations
3. Fundraising Events

Thomas Paine once said, "Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom, must, like men, undergo the fatigues of supporting it."

Many people see the value of this ministry and the wonderful blessings that take place at Martin Luther High School.

Please join them in supporting this ministry with your prayers, good words, time, talents, children and gifts.

Thank you.
